

Major General Dag Baehr

Vice President and Senior Officer

- 1965 Born on 30 August, divorced, one daughter
- 1985 Commissioned into the Bundeswehr Mountain Infantry as Reserve Officer Candidate, career change and training as a Mountain Infantry Officer
- 1989 Social and Political Science studies at the University of the Armed Forces
- 1993 Certified as Army Mountain Guide, assignments as Section Leader Mountain Infantry, Company Commander Mountain Infantry
- 1996 Special Forces assessment and selection, training and assignment as Special Forces operator
- 1999 National General Staff Officer Course, Bundeswehr Command and Staff College
- 2001 General Staff assignments within the Armed Forces and at the Federal Ministry of Defence
- 2004 Commander Operational Forces, Special Forces Command
- 2007 Branch Head Special Operations Branch, Supreme Headquarters Allied Powers Europe (NATO)
- 2008 Executive Officer to the Army Commander-in-chief, Federal Ministry of Defence
- 2009 Assistant Chief of Staff, Plans & Policy, Allied Land Component Command (NATO)
- 2010 Head of Land Operations Branch and Chief of Afghanistan Task Force, Federal Ministry of Defence
- 2012 Senior Military Advisor and Liaison to the President of the Federal Republic of Germany
- 2013 Commander Special Forces Command
- 2017 Member Royal College of Defence Studies, London

- 2018 Deputy Commander Strategic Reconnaissance Command, Commander Electronic Warfare Component
- 2023 Commander Sensors and Effects Command
- 2023 Vice President of the Bundesnachrichtendienst

Various deployments overseas, including several times as Commander of a Special Operations Task Force as well as multiple deployments to war zones and crisis areas on secondment to other departments and federal authorities.
